R.B. Murray Company Co-Vice President Earns SIOR Designation

Springfield, MO — Ross Murray, SIOR of R.B. Murray Company has achieved the SIOR designation awarded by the Society of Industrial and Office REALTORS®. SIOR is a Washington, DC-based international professional organization of more than 3,000 commercial real estate professionals, 2,800 of whom have earned the coveted SIOR designation.

To achieve the SIOR designation, Murray, SIOR completed at least five years of creditable experience in the highly specialized field of real estate; met stringent education requirements; and demonstrated professional ability, competency, ethical conduct, and personal integrity. Individuals who hold the SIOR designation are top producers in the commercial real estate field and are represented in more than 630 cities in 29 countries around the world. SIOR enforces a strict code of ethics and required designees to complete its ethics course within their first three years of membership.

A third generation family member of a 103 year commercial real estate firm, Ross joined the R.B. Murray Company in 2002. Ross specializes in acquisitions, investment sales, leasing, and exclusive tenant representation. In 2011 Ross achieved the Certified Commercial Investment Member Designation. One of the most coveted and respected designations in the industry, the CCIM is a recognized expert in the disciplines of commercial and investment real estate. Most recently Ross oversaw the multi-million dollar redevelopment of Springfield’s largest boutique retail center and has brokered the disposition transactions totaling over 550,000 square feet along with countless other projects.

Quote about SIOR: Since becoming an SIOR, it has elevated my career by expanding my knowledge and relationships regionally, nationally, and globally.
